EI III: PUTTING EMOTIONAL INTELLIGENCE TO WORK

Course Description
This half-day instructor-led course is designed to allow participants to practice strategies that improve self-awareness and relationship management. Hands-on activities stress the identification, the analysis, and the importance of managing one’s emotions and recognizing their effect on interactions and workplace culture. This class is open to anyone seeking to learn how their own and others’ emotions impact their productivity; as well as how to respond constructively and objectively to others’ emotions.

Prerequisites:
- Emotional Intelligence I WBT
- Emotional Intelligence II WBT

Training Objectives
- Identify how emotions impact productivity.
- Recognize situations that trigger your own strong emotions.
- Recognize and respond to others’ strong emotions constructively and objectively.
- Practice techniques to manage strong emotions effectively.

Insights & Observations

Training Takeaways
Use the area below to record key concepts, values, and ideas that you found beneficial today. Please ensure you list your “Most Valuable Takeaway” (MVT) below to discuss at the end of training.
